4. Look at the text.

Look at the title and the picture. What do you think the text is about?

- The text is about a carnival in Rio.
- The text is about public holidays in different countries.
- The text is about Christmas in England.

Public holidays

Every country has its own public holidays. On those days (almost) everybody in the country has a day off, schools are closed and there are special events. Can you think of a public holiday in your country? Let's look at some public holidays around the world.

Turkey

In Turkey they celebrate Children's Day on the 23rd of April. On this day everybody in Turkey has a day off. People sing the national anthem and there are folk dances. Children get all kinds of presents. It is a bit like Christmas in England.

5.   Listen to the dialogue.

Listen and repeat the phrases.

Alex: What's your name?

Grandmother: My name is Renate.

Alex: How old are you?

Grandmother: I'm 80 years old.

Alex: Where are you from?

Grandmother: I am from the Netherlands.

Work in pairs and repeat the text.

Now do it the other way around: Grandmother asks Alex the questions.

Think up Alex's answers yourself.

Public holidays

Every country has its own public holidays. On those days (almost) everybody in the country has a day off, schools are closed and there are special events. Can you think of a public holiday in your country? Let's look at some public holidays around the world.

Turkey

In Turkey they celebrate Children's Day on the 23rd of April. On this day everybody in Turkey has a day off. People sing the national anthem and there are folk dances. Children get all kinds of presents. It is a bit like Christmas in England.

Poland

Christmas is the most important and popular holiday in Poland. On the 24th of December (Christmas Eve) the whole family sits down at the table together. Before supper, which consists of twelve different vegetarian dishes, they break traditional thin wafers, called oplatki, together.

Greece

On the 28th of October, the people in Greece celebrate Ochi Day. Ochi means 'no' in Greek. On Ochi Day, people remember and celebrate the day in 1940 when the Greek government said 'No' to the Italian government. Greece didn't become part of Italy, so Italy declared war on Greece. That is how the Second World War started in Greece. Ochi Day is celebrated with school and military parades all over the country.

3. Read the text.

True or false?

Circle the right answer.

6. Practise.

You are still a guest at the party. Find out what you need to do and say. Choose who will play guest A and guest B. Then swap roles.

Guest A: greets and asks how B is.

Guest B: says how he / she is. Then asks how A is.

Guest A: says how he / she is.

Guest A: asks for B's name.

Guest B: says his / her name. Then asks A the same.

Guest A: says his / her name.

Guest A: asks where B is from

Guest B: says where he / she is from: I am from..., I am ... (nationality).

Guest A: asks how old B is?

Guest B: says how old he / she is.

Guest A: asks where B lives.

Guest B: says where he / she lives.

Guest A: says goodbye.

Guest B: says goodbye.

---

7. Act it out.

One of you plays guest A, and the other one plays guest B.

Finished? Do this.
